

Program of the 60th Anniversary Meeting
The Japan Association of International Relations (JAIR)

PART I: Saturday Morning Program

Time: 9:30-12:00 Saturday, October 15

Commemorative Panel A: The Future of Warfare: Is the Era of Expeditionary Warfare Over?

Speaker 1: Stephen Biddle (George Washington University)

“How Non-State Actors Fight: The Determinants of Non-State Military Methods”

Speaker 2: ONG Weichong (Nanyang Technological University)

“The Rise of Hybrid Threats: Manifestations and Impact in the Asia-Pacific Region”

Speaker 3: Kiichi Fujiwara (The University of Tokyo)

“On Navies and Modern Warfare: The Return of Maritime Strategies?”

Chair/Discussant: Yee Kuang Heng (The University of Tokyo)

Commemorative Panel B: How Does Migration Become an Issue in International Relations? Institutionalization in Immigration Control and the Reappraisal of Liberal Democracy

Speaker 1: Rieko Karatani (Kansai University)

“Construction and Transformation of Global Migration Governance: In Whose Interest is It?”

Speaker 2: James F. Hollifield (Southern Methodist University)

“Compromising ‘the Liberal Dilemma’? The Case of Europe and America” (tentative)

Speaker 3: Brenda SA Yeoh (National University of Singapore)

“Norm-Taker or the Entrepreneur? The Case of Asia” (tentative)

Discussant: Atsushi Shibasaki (Komazawa University)

Chair: Midori Okabe (Sophia University)

Commemorative Panel C: The End of Globalization: Lessons from East Asian International Relations in the Interwar Period

Speaker 1: Daqing Yang (The George Washington University)

“Facing a New Information Age: Japan’s Search for a Foreign Communication Policy in the Early 20th Century”

Speaker 2: Harumi Goto-Shibata (The University of Tokyo)

“Japan's Struggle with Internationalism Revisited: The League of Nations in East Asia”

Speaker 3: Tosh Minohara (Kobe University)

“The Elusive Equality: Japan and the Issue of Race during the Interwar Period”

Chair/Discussant: Haruo Tohmatsu (National Defense Academy)

PART II: Saturday Afternoon Program

Time: 15:30-18:30 Saturday, October 15

International Symposium: World Order in the 21st Century

Keynote speech: Akihiko Tanaka (The University of Tokyo)

“World Order: Are We Really on Our Way to the New Middle Ages?”

Panel discussion:

Chair: Yoshihide Soeya (Keio University)

Panelist 1: Barry Buzan (London School of Economics)

Panelist 2: Yan Xuetong (Tsinghua University)

Panelist 3: Saori N. Katada (University of Southern California)

Panelist 4: Choi Young Jong (Catholic University of Korea, President, KAIS)

PART III: Sunday Morning Program

Time: 9:30-12:00 Sunday, October 16

Commemorative Panel D: Imperial, Post-Imperial, or Pre-Imperial? Global Power Shifts in Historical Perspective

Speaker 1: Marlène Laruelle (George Washington University)

“Russia in Eurasia: Neo-Empire, Post-Imperial, Regional Hegemon?”

Speaker 2: Tsai Tung-Chieh (National Chung Hsing University, Taiwan)

“Paradigm Shift and Imperial Policy in the Post-American Era: A Possible Case of China”

Speaker 3: Jun Furuya (Hokkai School of Commerce)

“U.S. Global Hegemony under the Obama Presidency: A Retreat from Empire?”

Chair: Tomohiko Uyama (Hokkaido University)

Discussant 1: Yoshinobu Yamamoto (University of Niigata Prefecture)

Discussant 2: Akihiro Iwashita (Hokkaido University/Kyushu University)

Commemorative Panel E: Asia after the American Age: Toward Multipolar International Relations

Speaker 1: Amitav Acharya (American University)

“Building a Global International Relations (Global IR) out of Asia: Pathways and Pitfalls”

Speaker 2: Zhu Feng (Nanjing University)

“China's Maritime Power Ambition and Restructuring of the Balancing System in East Asia”

Speaker 3: Takenori Horimoto (Open University of Japan)

“India's Foreign Policy in the Asian Power Shift”

Chair: Mari Izuyama (National Institute for Defense Studies)

Discussant 1: Shin Kawashima (The University of Tokyo)

Discussant 2: Shinichi Takeuchi (Institute of Developing Economies-JETRO)

Commemorative Panel F: Transnational Governance and Public-Private Partnerships

Speaker 1: Duncan Snidal (Oxford University)

“Orchestration as a New Mode of International Organizations’ Governance”

Speaker 2: Graeme Auld (Carleton University)

“The Evolving Logics of Transnational Private Governance across Sectors”

Speaker 3: Isao Sakaguchi (Gukushuin University)

“The Prospects and Limits of Private Sustainability Regulation: Japan’s Experiences”

Chair/Discussant 1: Takahiro Yamada (Nagoya University)

Discussant 2: Norichika Kanie (Keio University)