

Japan Association of International Relations
Procedure for withdrawal

In order to withdraw from the Association, you need to follow the following procedure. Please read the following carefully, fill out and affix your seal to the notice of withdrawal form on the next page, and send it to the Association Secretariat address that appears at the bottom.

1. The Association's Act of Endowment and Membership Rules contain the following stipulations regarding withdrawal from the Association.

Article 28, Chapter 6 of the Act of Endowment, reads:

"Regulations for admission, withdrawal and membership fees of Regular Members shall be established by the Board of Directors."

Article 1-(c) of the Membership Rules reads:

"Any regular member who wishes to withdraw from the Association shall notify the President. Nonpayment of the membership fee for 3 years or longer shall be regarded as an intention to withdraw."

2. Membership fee and termination of delivery of the Journals and other correspondence at the time of withdrawal

(1) If you have already paid a membership fee for the year in which you withdraw, we will continue to send you copies of the journals and other correspondence until the end of that fiscal year, unless you request otherwise.

(2) On the other hand, if you have not paid a membership fee for the year in which you withdraw, we will terminate delivery of the journals and other correspondence as soon as we receive your notice of withdrawal.

Send your notice of withdrawal to:

Japan Association of International Relations Secretariat Branch
Nakanishi Insatsu, Shimotateuridori Oagawa-higashi Hairu, Kamikyo-ku,
Kyoto, 602-8048 JAPAN.
